

Right of Withdrawal from RE teaching

Parents/carers may withdraw their children from all or part of the RE curriculum. They do not have to provide a reason for this and the school will comply with the request. It has a responsibility to supervise any pupils who are withdrawn from RE but is not required to provide additional teaching or incur extra costs. If parents/carers wish their child to receive an alternative programme of RE, it is their responsibility to arrange this.

To support planning, Lincoln Carlton Academy asks if you wish to withdraw your child from all or part of our Religious Education Curriculum, please write a letter to the headteacher and alternative arrangements will be made for your child for the duration of the RE lesson.
